Bill No. 115-73

AN ACT to require the periodic disclosure of certain assets, liabilities, income, gifts and other interests by certain county officials and certain candidates for county office; to create a Financial Disclosure Advisory Board and provide for its composition, powers and duties; to provide for enforcement of disclosure requirements and authorizing the County Executive to extend, by Executive Order, certain disclosure requirements to certain appointed persons by changing the designation of Title 9 of the Baltimore County Code, 1968, from "Election Districts" to "Elections", by designating the subtitle "Election Districts" as new Article I thereof; by adding new Sections 9-3 through 9-9 under new Article II, to said title, and by designating said new Article II as "Financial Disclosure Act".

WHEREAS, by Chapter 3, Acts of the Special Session of the General Assembly of Maryland, 1973, new Section 29-10, inter alia, was added to Article 33 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, which new section directed each county to enact public financial disclosure requirements with respect to any local officials of such county, including candidates for election to such offices, the standards and requirements of which shall be substantially those required by said Chapter 3 for state officials and candidates, and

WHEREAS, in the interest of good government and pursuant to said State directive the County Executive of Baltimore County has requested the County Council to
